

What's on for Seniors 55+ July – September 2026

Shake off the winter chill and treat yourself to a season of fun, friendship, and discovery. Whether you are bargain hunting at op shops, getting creative with plants, enjoying an engaging talk or sharing musical memories, there's something in this activity lineup to brighten the season.

Op Shop Hop

Tuesday 28 July

Thornlie Park Centre, 50 Thornlie Ave, Thornlie

Arrive at 8.45am for 9am departure

Return 3pm to Thornlie Park Centre

Bookings open from 8.30am on Monday 13 July

$9

Hop on board for a fun-filled day out and about. Travel with our group to some of the best op shopping hotspots, discovering hidden gems and unbeatable bargains along the way. Share stories, laughs and your best finds over a relaxed lunch (at own cost). Don't forget to bring a bag of donations to give back – because every adventure is even better when it makes a difference.

Growing Joy: Kokedama for Beginners Workshop

Wednesday 26 August

Addie Mills Centre

2pm – 4pm

Bookings open from 8.30am on Wednesday 12 August

$2.30

Ever wondered what those plants wrapped up in balls of twine are (pictured right)? They're 'kokedama balls', traditional Japanese way of growing plants in soil and moss, all held together with twine. They're a lovely, slightly quirky way to display plants indoors. In this relaxed workshop, you'll learn how to make your own and take home a unique piece to enjoy.

Fees and charges update

You may have noticed a slight change in charges for all programs, activities and events. This reflects general increases in the cost of delivering these activities for local Seniors 55+.

See registration and booking information on back page.

TransWA & WA Seniors Card: Seniors Perks Session

FREE

Friday 14 August

Addie Mills Centre

1pm – 2.30pm

Bookings open from 8.30am on Wednesday 29 July

Staff from TransWA and Seniors Card will provide valuable information to enable you to maximise the benefits of both the TransWA network and the Seniors Card. Damaged or old Seniors Cards can be reissued on the day. Please indicate when booking if you are hoping to apply for a new card or replace your existing card.

PROGRAMS IN THE SPOTLIGHT – Addie's Afternoon Delights

If early starts aren't your thing, explore Addie Mills' afternoon activities to get out, stay active and make new friends, including Drums Alive, Exergaming, Singing for Fun, Rummy-O and Scrabble.

Sleep Matters with Dr Ree

Friday 11 September

10am – 11.30am

Addie Mills Centre

Bookings open from 8.30am on

Monday 24 August

We all do it, we all need it, yet sleep can still feel like a mystery. Why does it matter so much? Is eight hours really the rule? And what's normal as we get older? Whether you're sleeping like a log, counting sheep or somewhere in between, this session offers a clear, practical overview of what healthy sleep looks like in real life — and why it's worth paying attention to.

Switch Your Thinking – Energy Saving in Your Home Friday 28 August

FREE

Are you interested in reducing your energy bills while staying comfortable at home? Join the City of Gosnells for a practical and engaging session with Switch Your Thinking and expert Sarah McCabe, who will share simple, effective tips to help you cut electricity costs, make the most of your solar and stay comfortable throughout the year.

Planning for the Future and Protecting Your Rights

Friday 25 September

FREE

As you get older, you may need to make important decisions about your health care, finances and lifestyle. Planning ahead helps ensure your wishes are respected if you're unable to decide for yourself. This presentation from Elder Rights WA explains key legal documents such as an Enduring Power of Attorney (EPA) and Enduring Power of Guardianship (EPG), along with what to consider before putting them in place and how to protect your rights.

Weekly Programs for Seniors
